

The Starving Artist Cafe

Saturday August 15th Celebrate the Hagood Mill ride
(every month for the past two years.)

New Route - Marked and with Route Sheets
Prize Drawings
Free Food

Thanks to everyone that has made this successful

Starts at Furman (in plaza by Starbucks and Book Store)

All riders start at 8:00AM (no staggered start times)

To mark the event we will have a new route that is a loop ride and includes the new Doodle Trail, provide free food at the Starving Artist Cafe in Downtown Easley, and award prizes. So, come out, have a good ride and enjoy the day.

The route will be a 54 mile round trip from Furman University. We will regroup at the Starving Artist Cafe where FREE great food will be waiting for us and then we'll ride together through Easley, the Doodle trail and through the town of Pickens before landing at Hagood Mill and heading back to Furman on the current route.

Let's keep it rolling on this milestone of a ride and continue spreading the joy of cycling by broadening our cycling boundaries to new communities.

Link to Furman Map - Park in Lot 122

Route on RideWithGPS

Paid for by the Greenville Spinners - Breakfast from The Starving Artist Café

Breakfast Buffet

West End Coffee, Charleston Tea Plantation Tea or Soft drink

Fresh Baked Treats

Muffins & Cinnamon Rolls

Fresh Fruit

Sausage, Egg & Cheese Biscuits

Scrambled Eggs & Sausage or Bacon

Orange or Apple Juice

